

Frequently Asked Questions

If you are a person who is cranky, complains all the time, and blames others for your current situation, then I may not be the right mentor for you. However, if you are a motivated and positive go-getter, a high achiever who wants results, then I would LOVE to work with you.

I have learned from GIANTS like Mike Ferry Robert Allen Anthony Robbins Danielle Kennedy and so many others... When I find something that works, I use it.

Q: Do I need a Real Estate License to become an investor?

A: No, a license is not required. We go over that in the trainings.

Q: Do I need good credit or lots of cash?

A: This is a NO-MONEY-Down system, and it does not require lots of cash or good credit. We will help you work on repairing your credit as you go, but you can get great deals that are not based on your credit score.

Q: Do I have to come to Atlanta to get the live trainings?

A: We offer lots of live trainings such as teleclasses, webinars, Google Hangouts, and Skype. People outside of the United States join through the group live trainings and have success. We also have conferences in many areas that you can choose to attend.

Q: What if I am a Real Estate agent or broker, will this work for me?

A: Yes this program will help you structure your business and get more listings and rentals as well as buyers.

Q: Do I have to wait to get started or can I start now?

A: You can opt in RIGHT NOW. Just choose the program level you prefer based on your situation. You can choose the home study course & work alone with videos, email, and teleclass access. The group trainings give you the most access to group support and accountability. Or you can choose private, one-on-one access to Wendy Lovejoy and our other mentors. This level allows the trainings to be scheduled at your convenience and you get help with your first three deals.

Q: Is Real Estate Investing possible for me if I have recently had a felony or other legal issues?

A: Yes, having been incarcerated will not stop your success through Real Estate but you want to make sure you invest in your education. The Yellow Letter Mentoring is a great place to start.

Q: Will this work for me?

A: If you are committed to the game plan and doing the work you will have GREAT results.

Q: How long have you been teaching or mentoring others?

A: I have been mentoring and developing others to have success in Real Estate as Agents and Investors since early 2002.

Q: Can this work if I have a full-time job?

A: Yes this works based on your implementing the money making activities in the hours you put in. We go over that in the program.

Q: Will this work if I have a no job?

A: Yes if you work this program until you master the 10 steps depending on the program you choose. Then you will have more sellers talking to you on a regular basis Marketing systems and tools are key to full-timers. We cover that in this program
